PROPOSED SUBSCRIPTIONS for 2018

The Committee of the British Geotechnical Association has again proposed no changes in subscription rates for 2018 (the last increase was for 2016). The subscriptions for 2017 are included for comparison in the table below.

	2018		2017
	UK	Overseas	UK	Overseas
BGA Member (ICE Member)	£66	£87	£66	£87
BGA Member (Non ICE)	£71	£92	£71	£92
Student and Retired	£40	£61	£40	£61
Retired – Life Member	Free	Free	Free	Free
Corporate	£320	£362	£320	£362

All membership grades to receive Ground Engineering (except Retired – Life Member) and membership of either the International Society for Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineering or the International Society for Rock Mechanics (except Retired – Life Member and Corporate). Membership of both societies is available to those receiving membership of a single society for an additional fee of £10.

 Retired – Life Membership is free to members who are over the age of 65 and have been members of the BGA for at least five consecutive years. This membership does not include Ground Engineering or membership of either of the international societies. However, members will receive all information on meetings etc (as normally sent by email).

It should be noted that the ICE still contributes to the running of the BGA by providing discounted costs for lecture space for the evening meetings and Annual BGA Conference, support personnel and use of committee rooms.
